Victor Leischner, a recent arrival in Globe, reports that about six weeks ago when prospecting near the head of Canon Creek, on the reservation, he was fired upon by Indians, two bullets piercing his clothing. The Indians took his camp outfit, 25 ounces of gold and $20 in money. When fired upon Leischner was approaching his camp and, fortunately, was mounted on a good horse, which enabled him to escape.—Silver Belt.

Committee Meeting Last Night.

The committee selected to appoint delegates to the St. Louis convention met last evening at the office of Geo. G. Berry, pursuant to call. E. B. Gage declined the honor of being a delegate, on account of pressing business, and Hon. Mark Smith was appointed in his stead. W. J. Cheyney accepted the appointment. J. H. White has not yet replied to the communication from Secretary Wood, and it is not known whether he will accept. B. S. Coffman, H. T. Fisher and Geo. W. Seaverns were appointed alternates. The Secretary was instructed to communicate with the Governor asking for his endorsement of their appointments in conformity with his published request.

The committee have made good appointments. Mr. Coffman is chairman of our Board of Supervisors and superintendent of the Waterville Mining Company; Mr. Fisher is superintendent of the Sterling Silver Mining Company; Mr. Seaverns is owner of the three important mines in the Toquos district; W. J. Cheyney is superintendent of the Tombstone M. & M. Company; Hon. Mark Smith is our present delegate to Congress and part owner of the Herschel Mining Company. All are good men for anything regarding silver or anything that will tend to the advancement of our county and Territory, and if all other delegates to the convention do as well as we are sure our delegates will do, silver will soon be at its correct value of 1.29.29.

Bisbee Notes.

From a gentleman who returned from Bisbee we learn that thirty men were discharged from the Copper Queen last Sunday, and that the 100-ton smelter was shut down last week. A new smelter of the same capacity is being erected and will be in blast by the 1st of next January. It is the general opinion that more men will be laid off this month. No copper is being shipped, and an enormous pile of bars are being stacked up. There are four butcher shops and they are doing well. The company has reduced its force in the store.

Base Ball.

The Phenix club have signified their willingness to enter a base ball tournament against Tucson or Tombstone, to be held in Tucson or this city. As our boys were the only ones with sufficient courage to tackle the Phenix club and their imported battery, it is no more than right that the tournament should be held in this city. Thanksgiving Day is mentioned as the time and our boys want to get up and hustle.

When the case of the Territory vs. J. J. Smith, one of the parties charged with being implicated in the Cañon Diablo train robbery, was called, his attorney, Robert Brown, interposed a motion that the indictment be set aside for the reason that the writ under which the grand jury was summoned, which found the indictment, did not bear the seal of the court out of which it was issued. The fact was then developed that for years the seal provided for the United States District Court had been used on all processes alike—whether issuing out of the United States District Court or the Territorial District Court. Query: Can one seal be the seal of two courts of separate and distinct jurisdiction? This has set lawyers to thinking, and should the question raised by Brown ever be sustained by the courts, the consequences would be far-reaching.—Journal-Miner.

The West Virginia Feud.

The feud existing between the Hatfields and McCoy's, of West Virginia and Kentucky, has now assumed the aspect of a war of extermination. Recent telegrams state that the Bloomfield family struck with frenzy by the wanton butchery of Al Bloomfield and his wife, have decided to join in an attempt to exterminate the McCoy's, who were the murderers. This will give Hatfield at least twenty-five armed men. John Bloomfield, Chas. Bloomfield and George Hatfield, all of them relatives of the murdered party went to Huntington recently and recruited about a dozen of their relatives who were there in the Cincinnati and Ohio railroad shops. They then purchased all the rifles and revolvers they could find in the place, seen in all about one hundred repeaters of recent model, and nearly one hundred and thirty revolvers. They bought several thousand cartridges. This supply of war material was loaded upon ten wagons and then were driven south toward the scene of the Lincoln county feud, surrounded by a guard of fifteen desperate men, armed to the teeth. No attempt was made to stop them, as the county authorities are powerless.

A Dig in the Ribs

If on the right side and lower part of the diaphragm, though playfully meant and delivered, is calculated to evoke profanity from a chappy whose liver is out of order. When that region is sore and congested, pokes seem fiendish. Look at a man's countenance ere you prod him under the ribs. If his skin and eyeballs have a sallow tinge, you may infer also that his tongue is furred, his breath apt to be sour, that he has pains not only beneath his ribs, but also under the right shoulderblade. Also, that his bowels are irregular and his digestion impaired. Instead of making a jocose demonstration on his ribs, recommend him to take, and steadily persist in taking, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest anti-bilious and alterative medicine extant. Incomparable is it, also, for dyspepsia, rheumatism, nervousness, kidney trouble, and fever and ague.
